

The laws in place are to protect the public's interests so that we are allowed to listen to different opinions and music. If large conglomerates are allowed to take over the air waves these options will be unfairly limited. Please don't let this happen.